FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Astoria, Oregon

The First Presbyterian Church is an outgrowth of the First Presbyterian Church of Clatsop Plains, which is one of the oldest continuing Protestant Churches West of the Rocky Mountains. It was organized September 19, 1846 by the Reverend Lewis Thompson at the home of W. H. Gray, who came to Oregon with the Whitman-Spalding party.

Truman P. Powers and Alva Condit were elected Elders and became the first two ruling Elders on the Pacific Coast. On May 5, 1877, the First Presbyterian Church of Astoria was organized with about twenty charter members, among whom were twelve from the Clatsop Plains Church: T. P. Powers, Mary M. Powers, Henry Farnsworth, Mrs. M. C. McCray, Mary A. Gray, W. H. Gray, Mary Leinenweber, J. F. Barrow, Diana Barows, Miss Olivia Elliott, Mrs. Margaret Miller, Mrs. Christina Flavel, Miss Katie McGregor, George McLean, Elizabeth McLean, Mrs. Elizabeth McGregor, Mrs. Matilda Barrows, Mrs. Lydia Cole, and Mrs. Elizabeth Buckingham. The Church was organized in the school house in upper Astoria, and for the first five years, the Church met in an upstairs hall at the corner of 10th and Duane Streets, the first building being erected in 1882. The present building was erected in 1903.

There have been eleven ministers: E. N. Condit, J. V. Milligan, Dr. E. W. Garner, W. A. Hutchinson, S. M. Campbell, R. B. Dilworth, Robert Liddell, Henry Marcotte, H. H. Brown, W. H. Layson, and Wm. S. Gilbert. William S. Gilbert was pastor from 1905 to 1924, and the present pastor, Dr. D. J. Ferguson, took charge in 1924. Nine years ago an effort was made to extend the building so that it might meet the needs of the present day. The effort was made in connection with the Fiftieth Anniversary, but it was two years later before work was commenced. Many problems have confronted the congregation since. During this time, many of our older friends passed away including the then last living charter member, Mrs. Mary Leinenweber. The Church is particularly indebted and grateful to the Flavel family, particularly to Miss Nellie and Patricia who were interested in Sunday school matters and facilities for a primary school. The new building, which is a continuation of the old, extends the entire length of one block, from Grand Avenue to Harrison on 11th Street. Sunday worship will be carried on in the old Church. The new building is intended to serve for religious education and social service. Its total cost will be about $35,000, which could hardly be replaced for much more at the present time. It will contain a Sunday School with about ten classrooms to accommodate three hundred scholars, a primary assembly with six classrooms, a large auditorium with a stage capable of seating four hundred for banquet or entertainment, a ladies' parlor to accommodate one hundred, and large kitchen facilities of the latest type. The building was approved by our Board of Architects in New York, and is up to the minute in every feature for religious, educational, and social activities.
